MISSOURI

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF MISSOURI:

Believing that the party should nominate its strongest possible candidate for governor this year, we take pleasure in presenting the name of Judge Charles H. Mayer of St. Joseph, together with a brief statement concerning his fitness, qualifications and elements of strength.

Mr. Mayer was born February 8, 1876, at Sturgeon, Boone County, Missouri. After attending the public schools of his home county and Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington, Missouri, he was graduated from Cornell University in 1898. He was married in 1906 to Miss Josephine Terrill Thrailkill, daughter of an early day physician in St. Louis.

He began the practice of law in St. Joseph in October, 1898, and in 1920 was elected city attorney by a substantial majority when no other Democratic candidate on the general ticket was elected. He was not a candidate for re-election. In 1906 he was elected to the state senate and, while the youngest member of that body, he was generally recognized as one of its hardest workers and ablest debaters. He was not a candidate for re-election.

In 1912, Mr. Mayer was elected circuit judge for a short term of two years, and in 1914 he was re-elected to that office for a full term of six years. Judge Mayer resigned from the bench in 1917 to enter the law firm of Strop & Mayer, and in private practice he has been actively connected with much of the important litigation in Northwest Missouri. In recognition of his high standing as a lawyer and jurist, he was elected by the judges of the Missouri Supreme Court in 1919 to act as special judge of the Supreme Court.

As an indication of his standing among his home people, and of his ability as a campaigner, it is worthy of note that he has never been defeated in any race he has undertaken. In this connection it might also be stated that he has never gotten into office by default or by the weakness of an opponent, but has won every contest on the merits, by meeting the issues squarely, frankly and vigorously.

Judge Mayer has courage, decisiveness, firmness, rare judgment and all of the other attributes of a natural born leader. While he counsels with his friends and party leaders and has personal magnetism which makes it a pleasure to be numbered among his friends, yet no friend, however close, dominates him. He gives careful consideration to the views of others, but does not permit personal influences to unbalance his judgment; and no one, friend or opponent, has ever had any doubt as to where he stood on any public question.

In view of Judge Mayer's clean character, his fine public record, his aggressiveness as a campaigner, his ability as an orator, his pleasing personality, and his fearlessness and force as a leader, we feel that he is the ideal man to head our state ticket in 1920, and that he has the executive ability to make a notable success as governor of our great state.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. McCORD, President.
